State why an extension of time is requested explaining how a diligent effort has been made to meet the deadline:

*During the filing period for Madison County, 1988, the church filed on nine different water rights honestly believing that was all we had.
We made a conscientious effort, but recently we found that these two had been missed. It is felt that a diligent effort was made to file all rights on time, and that an extension of time be granted to the present date.*

Dear Mr. Fritschle,

Attached are the signed documents and two checks for $112.00 and $100.00. for water rights in Madison County. The first check is to pay for the adjudication assessment of two wells that were not included in the first assessment and the second is to pay the late fee for filing. Also included is a request for an extension in filing because of the circumstances that caused these two wells to be missed.
