29-11808, 29-02174, 29-02176, and 29-11182

Dear Mr. Taylor:

Thank you for sending the forms necessary to effectuate changes concerning the above referenced water rights. Enclosed are the following completed forms:

1. Change in Address Form for E. Jay Hartvigsen for Water Right Nos. 29-4352, 29-4353, and 29-4354 signed by E. Jay Hartvigsen.
2. Claimant Acknowledgement of Change in Attorney in SRBA for Water Right Nos. 29-4352, 29-4353, and 29-4354 signed by E. Jay Hartvigsen.
3. Claimant Acknowledgement of Change in Attorney in SRBA for Water Right Nos. 29-02174, 29-02176, 29-11182, and 29-11808 signed by Reed W. Hartvigsen, as Trustee for the Reed and Doris Hartvigsen Family Trust.

In your letter, you stated that IDWR does not have any records of any counsel representing these claimants. I am not certain with respect to some of Reed W. Hartvigsen's water rights, however, I have the yellow claimant copies for all of Jay's water rights and for one of Reed's (29-11808) and they each show Harold A. Ranquist and myself as having entered an appearance at the time the notices of claim were filed. That notwithstanding, I have enclosed the requested Change in Attorney forms so that there will be no question as to these water rights.

Dear Mr. David B Hartvigsen:

The request for Change of Ownership concerning your Notices of Claim in the above reference have been processed and copies of the Notices are enclosed.

Your letter also indicated that you now represent three (3) claimants in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). Because we do not have records of any counsel representing the claimants, IDWR needs confirmation from the claimants. Blank forms are enclosed for your convenience. We will need one signed by E Jay Hartvigsen and one signed by a representative of the Reed and Doris Hartvigsen Trust.

We have also enclosed a "Change of Address" form that when completed will allow us to change the address on E Jay Hartvigsen's claims.

The department apologizes for any inconvenience and if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact this office.
