Dear Dave:

This is in regards to you letter to me dated January 3, 1995. When I originally filed this " Notice Of Claim To A Water Rights" I had no idea a water right existed. I had talked with a Mrs. Anna Vreeland who said that her and her husband used the water ever since they had land, so based on her statement to me I put the date as my priority as the date she bought the land. She is deceased now so I could not get any more information.

Since January I have researched the court house and turned there records upside down. I believe I have found the water rights to my property. I have talked with an attorney and will retain him if necessary.

The Notice Of Water Right Location dated June 20, 1902 was found in book #2 of water location on page 145. I am sending you a copy of this water right.

Please let me know as soon as possible if I need to file a new " Notice Of Claim To A Water Right" or if you can change the form I already submitted and send me a copy of this with my Priority date changed. If you need anything else please let me know.

Thank you,

Garry L. Purkey
