SUBJECT: NEW AJ CLAIM
phone call (.) walk-in (X)

They were in talking to Jim Stanton and he determined they may need to file a transfer on this right but he suggested they file an AJ claim first. They said their Watermaster, Chuck Helman, told them he thought they were entitled to a portion of this right but didn't see a claim for it. The original owner of this right, Mark McCullough, was sent a Commencement Notice back in 1988 and filed a domestic claim (A47-14265) and an irrigation claim (A47-00151M) in January of 1989. Somehow this other decreed right appurtenant to the same property was overlooked. He sold the property to Larry Nielsen who sold to the Johnsons in 1994. The acre fees were paid for by A47-00151M and I did not charge late fees because they were exempted by AJ Memo #2, Section 3, and Second Round Service has not been done in Basin 47 yet.

March 27, 1996

In processing a transfer, Jim noticed that the claimed P/D for this claim and also A47-00151M appear to be wrong. He also has questions about the actual irrigated acres in the P/U. We decided to let the transfer go through and we can amend the claims to match the approved transfer...
