IDWR Employee/Agent Jeanie Robertson Date 3/6/95

Contact Person(s) Denis L Sandrock

Nature of Contact office visit

Substance of Communication he brought in Evidence of Priority for A47-04108. He had an affidavit from a neighbor and some copies of contracts between the TFCC and adjoining properties of when tiles were put in to catch the seepage. He could find no contracts for his property, but the seep from the adjoining properties flow into his property. He also filled out an ownership change form to remove his ex-wife names from the claims.

SUBJECT: Error In Claim A47-02213

It has come to my attention that the place of use claimed for stockwater should be in Sec. 22, not Sec. 27 as claimed. The point of diversion is in Sec. 27 on land owned by Mr. Bean. The seep water then flows a mile north to the Sandrocks property in Sec. 22 for stockwater and irrigation purposes. I do not plan to contact the claimant on this matter, as the SRBA review can take care of it when the time comes. This appears to be a simple typo.
