RE: Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA)
New Claim No.: 47-17172

Dear Mike,

Thank you for the address change forms. I have updated all our records. Enclosed please find a copy of claim 47-17172 for your signature. Per your phone call, I used 1934 as the priority date for this enlargement of decreed right 47-027. Would it be possible to get a signed statement from your father or perhaps a copy of the 1934 deed for the file?

I found approximately 65 acres irrigated within the original place of use and 72 acres of enlargement. You will note that the diversion rate for 47-17172 is .94 cfs but that I included a remark that claim 47-17172 does not actually represent additional water over the decreed amount. In other words: despite the printed diversion rates, 47-027 & 47-17172 combined do not exceed the decreed diversion rate of 1.8 cfs for use on 137 acres [65 & 72].

You are irrigating a total of 178 acres and your rights on this system total 142 inches, which includes 100 inches from Little House Creek and 42 inches from the spring located to the west of Little House Creek. If you believe that you are diverting more than 100 inches from Little House Creek, you may be able to claim additional water under 47-17172, so let me know.

This claim must be signed and notarized and a fee of $50.00 is required before it becomes active in our database. If it is convenient, stop by the office and I can notarize it for you.

Sincerely,

Vikie Hancock

Splits of Stockwater Claim No.: 47-12108

Dear Mike,

Enclosed are recommendations for the seven portions of claim 47-12108: 47-17162, 47-17163, 47-17164, 47-17165, 47-17166, 47-17167 and 47-17168. Please look them over and make sure that all the uses listed on the original claim 47-12108 have been included in the seven recommendations I prepared.

I am also enclosing a couple of Address Change forms so that you can change the various mailing addresses for Guerry claims to be consistent with the one above. You should probably submit a signed form for each different water right owner, even if they are to go to the same address. There is no fee for an address change.

If you see anything that needs to be corrected on the enclosed stockwater documents, let me know. I'll finish the irrigation recommendations after you have been able to supply some additional information on the enlargement claim.

Sincerely,

SRBA Claims for Guerry Inc

Mike Guerry

Mike Guerry came into the office September 21, 2004 in response to my letter of September 15th. We discussed the following issues concerning the following claims filed in the SRBA.

47-11258 This claim was filed for wastewater on the farm located at Castleford. Guerry's have since moved shares of TFCC water onto the property previously irrigated by waste water, and Mr. Guerry decided that it would be best if I simply disallowed the claim. We discussed the fact that any wastewater from the canal system that entered his farm could be used upon land covered by TFCC shares without a water right.

47-2130 Water from Little House Creek used for irrigation in the meadows at the farm in the Three Creek area. We looked at the GIS layout that represented an accomplished transfer of POU and Mr. Guerry said it looked right.

47-084 Water from a spring along Little House Creek for irrigation of the east side of Little House Creek. We discussed the historical ownership of land per the decreed tracts and the fact that there had been an accomplished transfer of this right precipitated by the change in POU of 47-2130. I explained that to me it appeared that there had been no increase in irrigated acres by the movement of the two rights.

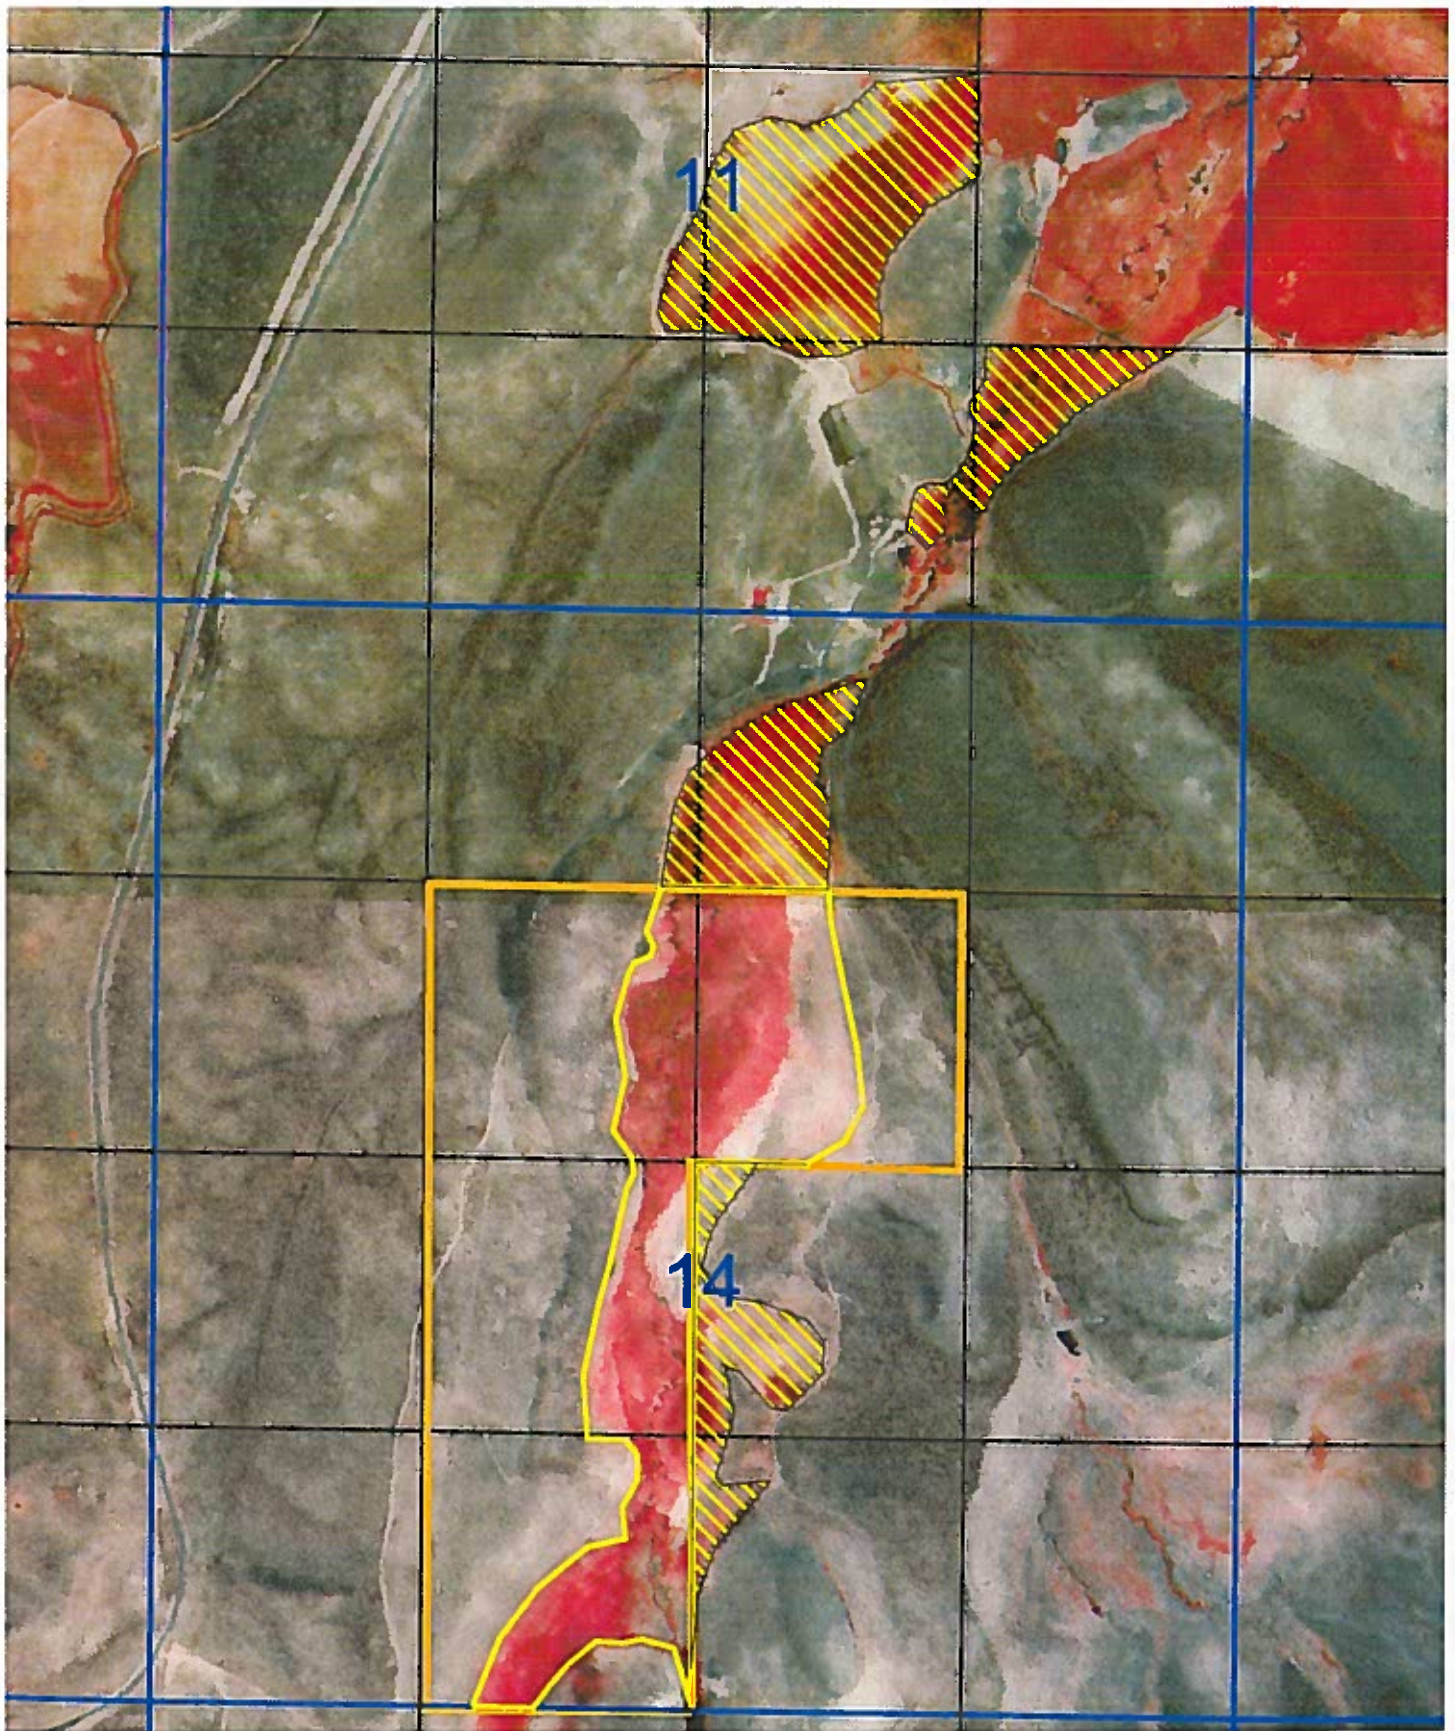

47-027 Water for irrigation from Little House Creek. Acres under this right have been expanded/enlarged and filed under one SRBA claim. I explained to Mr. Guerry that he needs to file a separate claim for the enlargement acres which will have a later priority date than the decreed acres. He is going to ask his father when the whole piece of ground was put together under one ownership and then file the additional claim. I explained that the two rights would be recommended together as a PPU which would enable him to use his earlier priority water anywhere on the meadows covered by the combined rights.

47-12108 This claim is for Stockwater from various sources located on the range around Three Creek. We discussed the best way for the one right to be split into several based upon drainage basin and land ownership. He agreed on seven claims split into House Creek, Devil Creek and Salmon Falls Creek drainages and by private, BLM and State of Idaho land ownership. We also went over each place of use to determine if it was diverted, an in-stream use, an in-channel pond or out of channel pond. I explained that each right would be recommended with a diversion rate of .02 cfs because we determined that there were no actual diversions into pipelines, etc, within this claim.

Mr. Guerry also found a place of use that had not been claimed in 47-12108. It is a pond located on an unnamed tributary to Shack Creek and located in the SWSE Section 29, T16S, R13E, very close to the Nevada border. He amended claim 47-12108 to add this POU and POD. [Note, that the signed printed claim 47-12108 amended 9/21/04 did not list all the sources and tributaries that were included in the original claim due to some database irregularities. This was an error and the amended claim should include all the original sources and listed tributaries.]

I told Mr. Guerry that I would split out the stockwater claim and send him copies of my recommendations for his review.

RE: Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA)
Claim Nos.: 47-027, 47-084, 47-2130, & 47-12108

Dear Mr. Guerry,

I have completed an initial review of the claims filed by Guerry, Inc. for irrigation water from Little House Creek and also for stockwater from various sources on your range.

As you know, your irrigation rights are based upon decrees and a license, and are therefore fairly strait-forward. However, because of some changes in the way that IDWR process enlargements of decreed rights, it may be necessary for you to make some changes in your filings. Also due to changes in the Department's method of recommending stockwater claims, it may be beneficial for us to split up the various sources claimed under 47-12108 into drainages and types of diversion, such as pipelines -vs- instream, etc.

Now that some time has passed since filing, you may also have some concerns about the Adjudication. Please call to make an appointment with me at your earliest convenience to discuss your claims to ensure that I make accurate recommendations to the SRBA court.

Sincerely,
