County of Twin Falls)

Laverda Palmer, being first duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says as follows:

- 1) The information contained herein is based upon my personal knowledge.
- 2) The Jensen 5 acres (Claim No. A-47-04231B) is part of the original small farm formerly owned by my father in law, Clint Palmer. According to the deed, they took title to the property in 1943. They resided on this property until we bought it from them. We moved onto the property in about 1959 or 1960 when my late husband Jack and I purchased the farm from my in-laws.
- 3) Prior to our moving onto the home place, my father-in-law, Clint Palmer, used the spring water for irrigation.
- 4) When my late husband, Jack Palmer, and I moved onto the home place, we continued to use the spring water for irrigation.
- 5) To the best of my knowledge, the spring water has been in continuous use for irrigation since that time and continues to be in use.

DATED this 17th day of April, 1995.

Laverda Palmer

SUBJECT: LATE CLAIM A47-04231D

phone call (.) walk-in (X)

She brought in some property and wanted to file a late claim. She indicated that she had previously worked with Jeanie Robertson and that she had researched the use and that her use was a portion of the above statutory claim. I copied A47-04231C and then changed the name, p/d, div. rate, and remarks to identify her use. She attached a copy of an affidavit from the former owner to the claim.
