SUBJECT: FILING LATE CLAIM
phone call (.) walk-in (X)

He was in last Spring and wondered why he didn't get an Evidence of Priority pamphlet like his neighbors. In checking the data bases, there was no claim on the AJ side but there was one on the WR side. He finally came back in today to file the claim. I entered it on the computer and had him fill out a Request for Extension of Time form and told him I would contact him with the correct fees later. After he left I looked through my notes more carefully and determined that since he was in Basin 47, which hasn't had 2nd. Round Notice sent yet, he doesn't have to pay late fees or fill out any requests. I left a message with his wife that he could come back in any time and the fee would be $52.00 ($50.00 filing fee plus $2.00 for the 2 acres.)

October 20, 1995
He came in this morning and paid the fees.

Nature of Contact office visit

Substance of Communication he found a receipt and copy of an old WR Statutory Claim (47-04382). It was on the WR data base, but I explained to him that it was never claimed in the adjudication. Gave him a claim form and instructions and also a Request for Extension of Time - so he may be able to get his late fees back. He gave me an affidavit to hold for Evidence of Priority of this claim, when he gets it filed. He also updated his address on his domestic claim A47-11172.
