Dear Ms. Harrington:

Please find enclosed a check for $128.00 as well as correspondence between you and me concerning Notice of Claim for water rights as well as related information.

I am at this point assuming this is all we need to do to ensure our water rights under the Snake River Ajudication. If not, please notify me. I understand that the regional service center is to be in Salmon some time in May. I had been holding this information until that time, but feel that due to the essence of time and probably the run that will be on that office when it is established, mail correspondence may be faster.

Thank you for your assistance and do please keep me posted as to our status.

Sincerely,

Jim Smith

RE: Notices of Claim to a Water Right
Lemhi County; A75-07323, 75-04311

Dear Mr. Smith:

Enclosed please find two Notices of Claim for the water rights you mentioned in your letter of January 13, 1989.

You mentioned that you thought the two wells had been combined into one water right. That is incorrect. You will notice that the two enclosed claims are both for wells; however, the priority dates and location of diversion point (where the well is) are different. In addition, the places of use are different. In order to protect these water rights, you will need to file a claim on each individual water right.

Fees are based on the use; the fees for your claims are $50 plus $1 per acre of irrigated land. You pay for an acre of irrigated land only once, i.e., if the same land is listed on both water rights, you do not need to pay twice for the acre. If there are no overlapping acres, the fees are as follows:

A75-07323	$68.00
A75-04311	$60.00

Please feel free to contact the Department if you have any questions or need additional assistance.

Sincerely,

Helen Harrington
