2. That on July 19, 1999 through his counsel a record, he lodged an Objection in the above referenced case objecting to quantity.

3. That on December 28, 2001, another Objection was filed with this Court in the above referenced case continuing to object to quantity.

4. That I, Matthew Olivas, continue to object to quantity. The use of the water right granted is for .06 CFS. Under N13, the use is limited to 13,000 gallons a day, which is not nearly sufficient for commercial use. It is inconsistent with the .06 CFS granted, which is the correct amount.

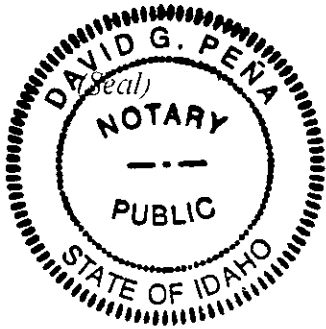

DATED this 27th day of June, 2003.
