Comes now, Jared K. Bedke and Bruce Byron Bedke, petitioners, Sui Juris, by special visitation, who are unschooled in law, in the above named subcases with the following MEMORANDUM OF CLARIFICATION (MEMORANDUM). It was recently brought to our attention that the Special Masters ORDER dated July 3, 2003 is an ORDER and not a RECOMMENDATION and therefore a MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND (MOTION) does not apply. It was also recently brought to our attention that the MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND submitted to this court, while substantively correct, should have been in the form of a MOTION TO RECONSIDER. While the form of the MOTION was that of a MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND, the substance of the MOTION was that of a MOTION TO RECONSIDER, and as requested in the MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND petitioners once again ask the court look at the substance of the pleadings rather than the form. This MEMORANDUM is to clarify that the previously filed MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND was really substantively a MOTION TO RECONSIDER the ORDER and should be treated and renamed as such. Petitioners hope this clears up any confusion.

Sincerely
