I.

Procedure and Findings of Fact Dual-based Claim

A. The above-captioned water rights were claimed as dual-based stockwater rights meaning the rights were claimed as federal reserved water rights pursuant to Public Water Reserve (PWR) 107 and alternatively as state-law based rights. The Idaho Department of Water Resource reported the state-basis for the claims with an 1879 priority date and also with the statement that the right had been claimed pursuant to PWR 107.

B. Objections were filed by the State of Idaho to both the state and federal basis for the claims, raising issues common to all federal stockwater claims based on state-law and PWR 107. For purposes of resolution, numerous subcases were consolidated and the issues pertaining to the state-basis and PWR 107 proceeded on different tracks.

State-Law Basis

C. The issues pertaining to the state-law basis for the claims mainly dealt with whether the United States could perfect state-law based stockwater rights prior to

June 28, 1934, (the date of enactment of the Taylor Grazing Act), and if so, under what conditions. The above-captioned rights were consolidated for purposes of summary judgment under lead subcase 72-11767, which was consolidated with consolidated subcases 51-04031, 55-04072 and 61-04057. See Order Consolidating and Designating Lead Subcases and Resetting Oral Argument on Summary Judgment, Consolidated Subcases 51-04031, 55-04072, 61-04057 and 72-11767 (May 15, 1998).

D. Special Master Hammerle, then assigned to the cases recommended that as a matter of law and fact that the priority date for the state-basis for the water rights was June 28, 1934. See Order Granting Summary Judgment and Denying Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment, Consolidated Subcases 51-04031, 55-04072, 61-04057 and 72-11767. Judge Hurlbutt, then presiding, adopted the report and recommendation and for purposes of appeal, consolidated the cases further with subcases 57-04028B, 57-10587B, 57-10588B, 57-10770B and 72-15929C. The consolidated subcase was designated under lead subcase number 72-15929C. See Order Adopting Special Master's Report and Recommendation and Consolidating Subcases, Consolidated Subcase Nos. 72-11767, 51-04031, 55-04072 and 61-04057. However, because of the pendency of the issues pertaining to the federal reserved basis for the claims, Partial Decrees could not be issued.

E. The State of Idaho move for 54(b) certification of the order for purposes of perfecting an appeal. On December 3, 1998, Judge Hurlbutt issued a 54(b) Certification for the Order. The State of Idaho and the United States, pending settlement negotiations, jointly moved to vacate the 54(b) Certification. An Order Vacating the 54(b) Certification was issued by Judge Wood, then presiding, on January 1, 2000. On January 10, 2000, the consolidation was removed.

F. On June 11, 1999, and on July 1, 1999, the United States and the State of Idaho filed stipulations resolving objections raised with respect to the state-basis for the claims not covered under consolidated subcases 72-11767, 51-04031, 55-04072 and 61-04057. See Stipulation to Resolve Objections, Consolidated Subcase Nos. 23-10859, 24-10221, 25-13659, 27-11604 (June 11, 1999) (resolving state-bases for dual-based claims); Stipulation to Resolve Objections (July 1, 1999) (resolving claims made solely pursuant to state law).

G. As a result, the priority dates for the state-law basis for those subcases subject to the Special Master's Order Granting Summary Judgment on Consolidated Subcases 51-04031, 55-04072, 61-04057 and 72-11767 is June 28, 1934.

Federal Reserved Basis

H. As concerns the federal reserved basis for the claims, in U.S. v. Idaho, 131 Idaho 468, 959 P.2d 449 (1998), the Idaho Supreme Court held that PWR 107 created a valid basis for federal reserved water rights. In Memorandum Decision and Order on Challenge (Scope of PWR 107 Reserved Rights Consolidated Subcase Nos. 23-10872 et. al. (December 28, 2001)), Judge Burdick, then presiding, resolved certain issues pertaining to the elements of a PWR 107 federal reserved water right.

I. Pursuant to I.C. 42-1411(A) a hearing was held on the federal reserved basis for water rights 65-19742, 65-19746, 65-20017, 65-20019, 65-20021, 65-20023, 65-20025, 65-20027, 65-20029, 65-20031, 65-20065, 65-20067 and 65-20119 on December 11, 2003. A hearing was also held on the federal reserved basis for water rights 65-19886 and 65-20041 on February 24, 2004. Prior to the hearings the Affidavits of Robert R. Mallis were filed by the United States in support of the elements of the water right claims.

J. According to the Mallis affidavits, at the time PWR 107 was executed, there were pending homestead applications for each of the lands to which water rights 65-19742, 65-19746, 65-20017, 65-20019, 65-20021, 65-20023, 65-20025, 65-20027, 65-20029, 65-20031, 65-20065, 65-20067 and 65-20119 are appurtenant. This Special Master previously ruled in Subcases 25-13635, 25-13637, 25-13653, 65-19960, and 65-19962 that a pending homestead application defeated a reservation under PWR 107.

K. According to the Mallis affidavits, water rights 65-19886 and 65-20041 do not lie on federal land. The United States withdrew the claims for water rights 65-19886 and 65-20041 at the February 24, 2004 hearing.

II.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATIONS

For the above-stated reasons, this Special Master concludes that as a matter of law water right claims 65-19742, 65-19746, 65-20017, 65-20019, 65-20021, 65-20023, 65-20025, 65-20027, 65-20029, 65-20031, 65-20065, 65-20067 and 65-20119 do not fit the criteria for establishing federal reserved water rights pursuant to PWR 107.

THEREFORE, IT IS RECOMMENDED that the federal reserved basis for water rights 65-19742, 65-19746, 65-20017, 65-20019, 65-20021, 65-20023, 65-20025, 65-20027, 65-20029, 65-20031, 65-20065, 65-20067 and 65-20119 be disallowed and that those rights be decreed pursuant to state law as set forth in the attached

Recommendations for Partial Decrees Pursuant to I.R.C.P. 54(b).

IT IS FURTHER RECOMMENDED that water rights 65-19886 and 65-20041 be disallowed with prejudice.

DATED April 27, 2004.
