COMES NOW, Applicants' Jack R. Hamilton and the Estate of Lela M. Hamilton ("Hamilton"), by and through their attorney of record, Jerry R. Rigby, and moves this Court for an order to quash, relieving Hamilton from the requirement to answer and respond to Objector Rocking Question, L.L.C. ("Rocking Question") "First Request for Admissions" and "Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents" served upon Hamilton. Pursuant to this Court's Trial Scheduling Order, dated April 26, 2002, all Discovery was to be Completed on June 28, 2002. However, the above described discovery served upon Hamilton by Rocking Question was only Served on June 28, 2002, making it impossible for Hamilton to respond to comply with the Court's order. Rocking Question has had sufficient time to pose discovery upon Hamilton in a timely manner and has failed to do so without any just cause.

Therefore, Hamilton respectfully requests this Court order that all discovery requests and interrogatories served upon Hamilton by Rocking Question be quashed, thus relieving Hamilton from any obligation to respond or answer the requests, interrogatories and/or production.

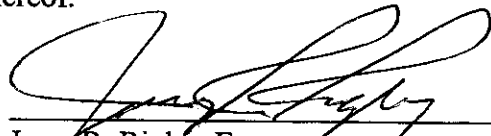

DATED this 12th day of July, 2002.
