Please find enclosed two notices of error, regarding two of the wells of the City of Craigmont.

The present City of Craigmont is the result of the consolidation in 1920 of two former villages, the Village of Ilo and the Village of Vollmer. These villages adjoined each other and both were incorporated in 1907.

During there separate existance, each village drilled their own wells and had established their own water systems. Records of the times these wells were drilled and put into production were lost or misplaced. Resently the minutes of the Boards of Trustees of both villages have been found and information concerning the well of both villages is now available.

Water Right Number 85-4358

Well Number 1

The minutes of the Village of Ilo are complete in regards to the drilling of the village well and the establishment of a water system. Photocopies of these minutes are enclosed. These minutes indicate that this well was put in production no later than October 1912.

Water Right Number 85-4357

Well Number 2

The minutes of the Village of Vollmer contain a record of the village purchasing a lot for well drilling, and the lettering of contract to drill a well. Photocopies of these minutes are enclosed. This well was probably put in production in the Fall of 1913.

Water Right Number 85-4356

Well Number 3

The information on the Cities third well, Water Right #85-4356 is correct.

The minutes of the Board of Trustees of each village do not indicate that any other wells were ever drilled. The Village of Ilo well and the Village of Vollmer well have continually been part of the villages and the City of Craigmont's water system.

Do to a lack of understanding of the importance of a priority date by former city officials, various priority dates were used for these two wells because of the lack of available records.

If further information is needed, please contact us.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Roger D. Ruggero". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
