MYRLE LOIS ECKLES,

Plaintiff,

VS.

CALVIN J. ECKLES,

Defendant.

Case No. CV 02-00218

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, MYRLE L. ECKLES, and for her cause of action against the Defendant complains and alleges as follows:

I

Plaintiff is now, and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

Plaintiff and Defendant originally united in marriage at Elko, Nevada, on February 17, 1983, and have, since that date, been husband and wife.

III

There have been no children born to this marriage and the Plaintiff is not pregnant.

IV

Plaintiff is possessed of separate property which was acquired by her either prior to the marriage of the parties or during the marriage with her separate property funds, and she is entitled to the Court's confirmation of such separate property as being her sole and separate property.

V

Defendant is possessed of separate property which was acquired by him either prior to the marriage of the parties or during the marriage with his separate property funds, and he is entitled to the Court's confirmation of such separate property as being his sole and separate property.

VI

During the marriage of the parties hereto, there have been acquired items of community property which Plaintiff asks the Court to divide equitably between the parties.

VII

During the marriage of the parties, there have been acquired items of community indebtedness which Plaintiff asks the Court to divide equitably between the parties. Each party should be solely responsible for the debts incurred by him or her prior to the marriage and since the date of separation, to-wit: February 26, 2002.

VIII

During the term of the marriage of the parties hereto, irreconcilable differences have arisen between them within the meaning of Idaho Code §32-616, making it mandatory that said marriage be dissolved.

IX

Defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever that would bring him within the purview of the Act of Congress commonly referred to as the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act.

X

The Plaintiff's former name of LEACH be restored.

XI

Defendant should pay to Plaintiff attorneys fees in the event this action is contested.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against Defendant as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be dissolved, and that Plaintiff be granted a Decree of Absolute Divorce from the Defendant;
 2. That each party be solely responsible for the debts incurred by him or her prior to the date of marriage and from and after the date of separation, to wit: February 26, 2002;
 3. That the Court equitably divide the parties' community property between them;
 4. That the Court equitably divide the parties' community indebtedness between them;
 5. That the Court confirm unto Plaintiff her separate property;
 6. That the Court confirm unto Defendant his separate property;
 7. The Plaintiff's former name of LEACH be restored;
 8. That Defendant pay to Plaintiff attorneys fees in the event this action is contested;
- and,
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper in the premises.

DATED this 14th day of November, 2002.
