Dear Mr. Little:

You mentioned that you wanted to have the property you received deeded to both you and your wife. Since your mother requested that the property be deeded only to her children, we were unable to follow your wishes. The deeds have now been recorded in Teton County.

Now that the deeds have been recorded, you can, if you wish, gift deed a community property interest in the property to your wife. Therefore, enclosed is a "Gift Deed - Community Property Interest" from you to your wife. Once this deed is signed and recorded, the property will be in both you and your wife's names.

You should sign the deed and return it to this office and we will have it recorded for you, if that is your desire. We have enclosed an envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Debra A. Keller
Secretary to Ray W. Rigby
