Subject to easements of record or in existence for roads, ditches and utilities, and particularly a right to an easement to be used jointly by the said Arlene Nickell, and also Winifred Griggs and Whitney K. Little for an irrigation ditch to convey water from the above-described irrigation well which runs South from said well site to a headgate, and then runs West in an existing ditch 1,980 feet, to the West borderline of the above-described property conveyed to the said Arlene Nickell.

And together with all and singular the other tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

SUBJECT to the express condition that the said Arlene Nickell and her heirs cannot and shall not sell, trade, convey or encumber the property in any way during the lifetime of the said Arlene Nickell, or her heirs now living, except a conveyance or encumbrance may be made to or in favor of Winifred Griggs and Whitney Little or their heirs.

RESERVING to Edith Little, of Route 1, Driggs, ID 83422, a life estate in and to the following described property (including the main house, the well house, the "white house," the storage shed, the coal shed, the garage, the tool shed, the small wood house, the red granary, and the round tin granary located thereon) as follows:

Beginning at the SE Corner of the NW1/4 of Section 14, Twp. 5 N., Rge. 45 E.B.M., Teton County, Idaho, and running thence North 165 feet, more or less, to a point in Highway 33 directly east of and in line with the east-west fence running south of the said house, which fence shall be the south boundary line of said property, which is the true point of beginning; running thence North 108 feet, more or less, to a point in Highway 33 directly east of and in line with the east-west fence running north of the said house, which fence shall be the north boundary of said property; thence West 385 feet, more or less, along and in line with the north boundary line fence to a point far enough west to include the said round tin granary; thence South 108 feet, more or less, to a point directly west of and in line with the said south boundary fence line; thence East 385 feet, more or less, along and in line with the said east-west fence, being the south boundary of said property, to the point of beginning; together with an access easement into the west end of the described property accessing the County road known as 250 North through the Arlene Nickell property, together with all easements and rights pertaining thereto, which have always gone with said property, and containing approximately 0.955 acres. This life estate shall be terminated automatically upon the death of the said Edith Little and the recording in Teton County, Idaho, of a certified copy of her death certificate.

ALSO RESERVING to Winifred Griggs and Ray Griggs, her husband, the "Baptismal House" cottage located just north of the above-described property in which was reserved and granted a life estate to Edith Little, as a cottage where they may dwell, or which may be used as a guest cottage for any and all Little-Nickell-Griggs family members when visiting. Use of the cottage by Newel Kimball may be given special consideration by Winifred. The cottage is not to be used as a permanent dwelling by any of Winifred's children, nor is it to be used by anyone without permission from Winifred. Water and electricity is to be supplied from the main house, and shall be used frugally. Water and electricity fees are to be paid promptly on an "as-consumed" basis by anyone using the house. Failure to promptly pay for water and electricity fees in full shall be grounds for refusal by the owners of the main house to supply water and electricity to those responsible for the cost, and will also be grounds for the refusal by Winifred for the use of the cottage. There is to be no repayment for any cost which Winifred may expend at such time the house may be restored. The cottage is not to be moved by anyone except Winifred. If not moved during the lifetime of the said Winifred Griggs, said cottage shall remain on the property upon which it sits.

Also included is an easement in the land upon which said cottage sits and a 16-foot access easement to said cottage along the road running west of the cottage and southward across the Arlene Nickell property to the Edith Little life estate property (or in the event of Edith Little's death, the Arlene Nickell property), between the red granary and the round tin granary, thence southward across the west end of the Edith Little life estate property to its south boundary, and thence southward across the Arlene Nickell property, to the county road known as 250 North, all along existing roadway. This agreement remains in effect so long as Winifred and/or Ray shall live or until such time Winifred has no further need for the house, at which time she shall so state in writing. These easements, and all rights to said cottage, if the same has not been removed from the premises, shall terminate automatically upon the death and the recording of certified copies of death certificates in Teton County, Idaho, of both Winifred Griggs and Ray Griggs.

TOGETHER with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, and rents, issues and profits thereof;

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, all and singular, the said premises, together with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, and to her heirs and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
