In reference to the claim rights claim # 37-4149A –

In 1916, a man named Votemire built the earth dam and began to use the hot springs for irrigation and stock water. After some time, he sold the farm to Jimmie Yamatoto. Mr. Yamatoto mainly used the water for irrigation on the ground of said water right. Mr. Ray Wolfe purchased the farm in 1968 and has used the water from the hot springs from that time to the present day, and has always been solely responsible for all maintenance to the earth dam and ditches.

Mrs. Guillermina Wolfe is now sole owner of Ray Wolfe Farms, and has all said responsibilities of hot springs and irrigation rights for Claim #37-4149A.
