Dear Idaho Department of Water Resources,

Subject: Evidence of Priority

WATER RIGHT NUMBER: 75-4325

AFFIDAVIT:

I, Lynn Dahle, have personal knowledge of water being diverted from the Salmon River in the year 1950 to irrigate land described as Price Island. The ditch had been in use prior to my observation. The diversion point is now located where the Army Corps of Engineers placed a pipe and head gate under the dike approximately one mile south of the Highway 93 bridge as it crosses the river in the city of Salmon. I also have personal knowledge of Carl Ziegler, owner of property on the north side of Price Island, using water from the same ditch and diversion that irrigates the Dahle property. It is used every year during high water. Due to the Corps of Engineer's dredging and changing the channel above the head of the ditch, when the river goes down it is pumped to irrigate.

I have also enclosed a Farm Service Agency 1939 flight showing ditches being used to irrigate the property described in water right number 75-4325.
