ADJUDICATION MEMORANDUM

CLAIM NO.: A51-02209 & 02210 SUBJECT: Exam recommendations

EMPLOYEE: Linda Werner DATE: 2-10-94

Mr. Black came in as a result of my letter dated 2-8-94.

We discussed total acres irr. & he agreed w/ my findings of acres in Section 6. He thought, however, that 38 acres in Sec. 7, shown was a more accurate assessment of what was irr.

We also discussed water quantity & how decreasing the acres would also decrease quantity & he was agreeable to this on the basis of accuracy accurately representing the use.

I also gave him a copy of 2 well logs & it appears the well driller had the wrong legal description for the well in SENE, Sec. 1.

JAMES F BLACK
PO BOX 217

Dear Mr. Black;

I am writing in regard to the results of my field exam of February 3, 1994. I have not yet completed the final recommendation regarding the well locations, however, I hope this letter will serve as sufficient notice as to where I found their locations.

Based on my findings during the field exam, I found two wells in the following locations: T7S, R5E, Section 1, SW1/4NE1/4SE1/4 and SW1/4SE1/4SE1/4. I intend to recommend both claims, A51-02209 and A51-02210, with these well locations.

There is another item I would like to discuss. As a part of the review process, I matched acres seen on the ground with acres seen on maps and with the original licenses. I found a slight discrepancy in the total number of acres. I am sending a map showing the acreages I found which are appurtenant to each license. The only places I found a difference are the quarter, quarters which have the numbers circled. I have written in red the differences found in acres. The difference in acres may seem insignificant, however, even a small amount could affect the total water quantity.

It is for this reason that I ask you to review this map and advise me as to the accuracy of the acreage found. Please let me know as soon as possible, preferably by February 22, 1994. This will allow me to complete the recommendation in a timely, and accurate, manner.

Sincerely,

Linda A. Werner
