Dear Ms. McKee:

Enclosed are your copies of the amended Notices of Claims to a Water Right, A57-02165 and A57-02192. If you will recall, these are the claims on which it was necessary to add a diversion point as consistent with the prior Reynolds Creek decree.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Dear Ms. McKee:

Enclosed are the two Notices of Claims to a Water Right we discussed in our phone conversation of Thursday, September 13. They are numbered A57-02165 and A57-02192.

On A57-02165 I added the diversion which was deleted when the claim was initially completed. On A57-02192 the second diversion point had an inaccurate legal description. I amended it to show the correct diversion point. Both claims are now consistent with the way they were decreed in the Reynolds Creek decree.

Please review these claims for accuracy and if they are correct, initial and date each change. The changes are highlighted. Return the initialed claims to my attention and when I receive these I will send you a copy of the corrected claims.

Sincerely,

Linda A. Werner

Re: 57-2192

Dear Mrs. McKee:

In the past there may be a discrepancy that has been overlooked. The enclosed claim form would correct this discrepancy.

Through the protest you filed in 1981 the Department is obliged to change its recommended acre figure to 60 acres for the above referenced water right. Your existing claim shows a total of 45 acres for this water right. To leave no obvious stone unturned legally the enclosed claim probably should be filed. Before returning this amended claim to this office, please sign it before a notary public who will then affix the proper seal.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McKee:

The Department has investigated your protest against the Preliminary Report of the Proposed Finding of Water Rights in the Reynolds Creek Drainage Basin. The Department finds that your water rights were misinterpreted in its Report and is willing to make the necessary corrections in its Proposed Finding to the Court.

The recommendation for your claims on page 5 of the Report should appear in the Proposed Finding as they appear on the attached page.

If you find the corrections satisfactory, please sign one copy of the enclosed letter and return it. The signed letter will withdraw your protest. Withdrawing your protest to the Preliminary Report will in no way prevent you from filing an objection to the Proposed Finding when it is filed with the Court should you find it necessary to do so.

Also enclosed are your copies of the aerial photos which you furnished earlier. Thank you for helping the Department in making a more accurate Proposed Finding. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Sincerely,

FORREST E. LUTHY

Re: 57-2165, 57-2192

Dear Sir:

I wish to file a protest to your Preliminary Report of the Reynolds Creek Adjudication. The report recommends a total of 67 acres for my two water rights. I believe there are substantially more acres. I will supply a map verifying the larger number.

Sincerely,

Russell McKee
