DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES

The Minzer Runsten ditch is used to irrigate the part of the Eugene Edwards Ranch that borders Highway 93 South. It was dug by Edgar S. Edwards Sr. in the 1800's from the point of diversion through and to the end of the ranch. When neighbors to the north of the end of the ranch wanted to add onto the ditch, E.S. Edwards Sr. allowed them to do so under the condition he would always have a guaranteed two hundred inches of first priority to the ditch. This is recorded at the Lemhi County Courthouse in Salmon, Idaho.
