Re: Field Examination and Evidence of Priority, Snake River Basin Adjudication Claim
3-10005

Dear Mr. Robischon,

In the fall of 1970 we had L.C. Cheney level 36 acres of land on our farm, which we purchased from Everett W. Hoffer and Daisy E. Hoffer in 1967. Prior to having this land leveled, it was not farmable due to a pond, slough, rocks, etc.

No additional pumps were installed and the 36 acres were and are irrigated from the original points of diversion and are used for irrigating farm crops.

Enclosed are copies of our 1970 and 1971 Farm Income and Expense Schedule F (Form 1040) showing money paid out for land clearing or leveling. $1800 was paid in 1970 and the balance of $1200 was paid in 1971. We are unable to come up with the cancelled checks as so many years have gone by.

Hopefully, this will satisfy the request for documentation of first use or priority date. If not, please advise us what else we need to do.

Sincerely,

Leon J. Bergquist
R. Lucille Bergquist
