Rex Donald Jones being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I moved to this property in August 1941, as an 11 year old child, with my parents, Robert and Dora Jones. At that time the spring was in use as irrigation on a hay field and as stock water. The property has been continually owned by my family since that time.

After my father passed away, I bought the land from my mother and have continued to use the spring for irrigation and stock water. My neighbor, Cecil Kellar (who is now deceased) told me that he knew former owners who irrigated from the spring as far back as 1924.
