I moved here in 1934 at age 15 and all the water in these claims was being used for these purposes at that time. They have continued to be used since then. We moved into a cabin on Iron Creek and my wife and I still live here.

I have lived here since 1922 and they have been continuously used for these purposes since then. At that time Joseph Ched and Caroline Ched owned the place and were using the water. My family lived on Iron Creek then and my husband and I still live on Iron Creek.
