hi Ernie,
P16 and P06 are both that the right is being recommended as another right. What about if it is not being recommended at all? It doesn't seem like the current remarks/conditions apply. Some of these claims to the decree they just have not responded to our requests for information. Would we still consider it forfeited?

Subject: RE: claims disallowed because of being over claimed

Good Morning Cindy,

I hesitate to suggest there is a one rule fits all application regarding recommendations on claims for over claimed decreed rights. When there has actually been irrigation, one approach is to notify the claimant that available information does not support recommending their water right as claimed and they have a couple of options. 1) Provide convincing documentation/evidence to support a favorable recommendation. 2) Provide convincing documentation/evidence to show beneficial use prior to mandatory permit date but later than the decree and amend their claim to reflect a basis of beneficial use. 3) Failure to achieve number one or two will result in the claim being disallowed usually with the explanatory condition P16 (new code) and general remark P06. In those cases where your investigation reveals the claimant clearly is not entitled to any portion of the decreed right then limit the options to number two and three. With HKM analyzing our every recommendation on the Blackfoot River and tributaries, be sure there is convincing evidence to support a beneficial use claim.

If the claimant is successful in meeting the requirements of a beneficial use right be sure to renumber the claim if the claim number is associated with a number assigned to a decree.

Subject: claims disallowed because of being over claimed

hi Ernie,

If a decree is over claimed and not being recommended should the claimant file a beneficial use claim or do we recommend the disallowed decree as a bu?

I wonder if we recommend the disallowed decree as a bu claim if that won't be confusing but I hate to have them have to pay the extra money to file a bu claim.

What do you think?

thanks,
Cindy
