Dear Mr. Saxton,

In regards to these transactions that need to be addressed. I have no 1 has to be an error on my part. I was probably thinking of about the time I purchased the land and that was about the time my claim went into effect. Your judgement on using the 1919 priority date is by far the only way to go. Thank you.

only way to go. I think I Case #2. I don't understand why or how I ~~was~~ claimed two points of diversion. All I have ever had was a single loss for my pump and a pipe to discharge the water pumped to the land to be irrigated. I hope this explanation is satisfactory to you and all the best.

Every thing ~~is~~ in your letter is understood and I go to a notary tomorrow and sign the Necessary papers,

I hope all my remarks and explanations are understandable to you.

Very Truly Yours

Enclosed is the paper I signed before a Notary.
Please let me know if I've made mistakes or misunderstandings.
