ATTACHMENT

PLACE OF USE: The Partial Final Consent Decree Determining the Rights of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes to the Use of Water in the Upper Snake River Basin (August 2, 1995) decreed all water rights to Indian lands within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Hall Reservation as reserved to the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes. The land specified in the place of use for this claimed water right is located within the boundaries of the Fort Hall Reservation, as surveyed by the U.S. Bureau of Land Management, and thus is Indian land. This claim seeks a water right that has already been decreed to the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes. This claim should not exist. To the extent that the claimed total acreage and water quantity includes Indian lands, it should be changed by deducting the decreed Indian land and corresponding water quantity.
