CLAIMS 47-4477 & 47-4478 Groundwater
CLAIMS 47-12182, 47-12287, and 47-17170 Cottonwood Creek and tributaries
CLAIM 47-4475 Springs
CLAIM 47-2208 Irrigation from storage and irrigation

ANALYSIS:

The place of use for 47-4477 and 47-4478 was established through T-5240 for a total of 1477 ac. The source for the claims is ground water. The transfer was approved in November of 1999.Using arcview I found a slightly different acre count by 40-acre tract. The two claims represent a groundwater system that utilizes some of the surface water claims system. The transfer recognized ground currently not being irrigated by the surface water system. The place of use for the two claims is similar to but varies somewhat in various locations when compared to the surface water place of use. The transfer added ground not covered by surface water.

47-12182 and 47-12187 are claims based upon a combination of several decreed and/or licensed rights. Not all of the claimed and found place of use was a part of the decreed ground, likewise not all of the decreed rights place of use are included within the claimed place of use. The two claims are for the same permissible place of use and included both of the green identified areas as identified in the aerial photo to the right. The upper left shape was not a part of any decreed place of use nor was it developed from a Cottonwood source until the 1950s. It is not included within the recommended place of use for the two claims listed above. It is being claimed under beneficial use right 47-17170.

The decrees identified full 40-acre tracts and at one inch per acre for the full tracts. Many of the tracts were never fully irrigated and that fact is being recognized in this recommendation. The decreed water has been consolidated on a smaller place of use and I am therefore recognizing an unrecorded transfer for portions of the decreed rights.

The recommended place of use identified in the aerial photo as the lower right shape has been calculated several times over the years, however the acreage was either estimated or calculated off of ASCS aerial photography. The field shapes also have varied over the years further clouding the ability to accurately determine the historic irrigated place of use. The place of use was identified through a licensing field examination for 47-2448 at 720 acres. For T-4570 and T-4571 the two shapes covered in the aerial photo above were identified as historically covering 1257 acres. In that analysis Allen Merritt (IDWR) determined that the ground irrigated around Cottonwood to be 826 acres. I find that the historic place of use for these claims to be 851.2 acres.

47-12187 claimed the combined rights 47-64, 47-65, 47-66, 47-67, 47-68, 47-69, 47-2060, and 47-2075. 47-2060 was decreed as 47-69 therefore I am not recognizing that portion of the claim covered by 47-2060. The claimed place of use and points of diversion do not include those for decreed rights 47-64, 47-68, and 47-69, therefore I am not recognizing those rights within this combined right claim. I am recognizing 7.54 cfs from the remaining rights 47-65, 47-66, 47-67, 47-68, and 47-2075. At one inch per acre the place of use limit equates to, 7.54 cfs/0.02 cfs/acre = 377 acres.

47-12182 claimed the combined rights 47-60, 47-61, 47-62, and 47-63. The claimed place of use and points of diversion do not include those for decreed right 47-63, therefore I am not recognizing this right within this combined right claim. Starting with the 851.2-acre place of use and then subtracting the 377 acres for 47-12187, I am therefore recognizing 474.2 acres for this claim. At one inch per acre I recognize (474.2* 0.02 cfs) 9.48 cfs.

Other related claims: 47-2448 (a storage right) and 47-4475 (a spring source for irr, domestic, and stock use).

COMBINED ACRE ANALYSIS

The place of use is roughly divided into two different segments, one being the northwest unit referred to as the pivot system, and the other the Cottonwood system. Two transfers were filed for 47-4477 and 4478 changing the point of diversion relationship and shifting the place of use.

An analysis for the first transfer T-4570 identified the place of use for the Cottonwood system as covering 826 acres and the pivot system as covering 431 acres. The transfer was approved with a 1477 acres permissible place of use and limited the two groundwater rights to 1257 acres within the PPU. The next transfer T-5240 was filed to add an additional point of diversion and also increased the PPU to 1568 acres while still limiting the two rights to 1257 acres. The surface water rights were not involved in any of the transfers.

The recognized place of use for the surface water rights is slightly different than the original 826 acres. I found an additional 25.2 acres being irrigated but not recognized in the groundwater PPU. I am recognizing 851.2 irrigated acres via 47-12182 and 47-12187.

When 47-12182, 47-12187, 47-4475, and 47-2448 are combined limit to 851.2 ac

When 47-4477, 47-4478, and 47-17170 are combined limit to 1257 ac (See T-5240)

When all claims are combined limit to 1282.2 ac (1257 ac and 25.2 ac)

T-4975 placed a limitation of 38.5 acres within the T12S, R17E, Sec 27 SWNE.
