Re: Submission of Notices of Claims
MTBR&F File No. 22-567.00

Dear Dave:

Enclosed with this letter are notices of claim and filing fees for the following water rights: 67-00638, 67-00639, 67-00644 through 67-00653, and A67-02302. I am submitting these claims on behalf of my client, Tree Top Ranches, L.P. Please direct any correspondence regarding these claims to my attention.

The claim for water right A67-02302 is actually an amended claim. IDWR licensed this water right on January 30, 1979. Originally, this right included a maximum diversion rate of 5.54 cfs and a 277-acre place of use. However, it appears that the prior owner of the ranch previously underclaimed this right for a maximum diversion rate of 0.20 cfs and a 10-acre place of use. Accordingly, we are submitting the enclosed amended claim in order to ensure that Tree Top Ranches receives its full water right.

The remainder of the claims are intended to split up water right A67-14107. Previously, Tree Top Ranches submitted a single notice of claim form that included several individual water rights that were decreed by the Washington County district court in 1929 in the Fairchild v. Warren case. We are now submitting a claim for each individual water right in order to split up this "umbrella" claim. I note that IDWR records reflect this "umbrella" claim to also include water rights 67-00640 through 67-00643, which were also decreed in Fairchild v. Warren. However, we have not submitted notices of claim for those water rights because it does not appear at this time that Tree Top Ranches owns those water rights.

I also note that the place of use for some of these claims may differ from the place of use currently reflected in IDWR records. Tree Top Ranches believes that these water rights have been used to irrigate the 827-acre place of use identified in these claims since well before November 19, 1987, and, accordingly, that it has accomplished a transfer of the place of use in accordance with Idaho Code Section 42-1425.

If you have any questions or concerns about any of these claims, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Scott L. Campbell
