3 one.

4           3.       That I first became aware of the ground in the southeast corner of the 5 property located at 1000 South 150 East in Cassia County in 1946. That I was hired to help Jim
6 Poulton with general farm and ranch duties. That such duties included taking care of cattle,
7 planting grain and irrigating farm ground. I performed those and similar duties in 1946 and 8 1947, prior to entering the U.S. military in 1948.

9           4.       That when I became familiar with the property, the LDS structure was 10 intact on the property. That there was no irrigation of any kind on the property during the two 11 years I observed the property. The Poulton's did not graze cattle on the property.

12           5.       The only vegetation on the property was sage brush and native grasses that 13 grew without the aid of irrigation of any kind.
