ATTACHMENT TO RESPONSE OF A & B IRRIGATION DISTRICT

Explanation:

9. Place of Use:

This Objection has no merit, as "Unit A" of A & B Irrigation District has no defined boundaries. The place of use for this right is limited to the acres being irrigated at the time the right was acquired, and not a limitation as to any change in the place of use made with the approval of the irrigation district, so long as the same is within the digital boundaries of the irrigation district. By law, the place of use has been enlarged by individual landowners within the irrigation district, which enlargements have their own priority and are in addition to the original place of use. What objector refers to as enlargement acres also ignores the distinction between those enlargement acres allowed pursuant to the statutes of the State of Idaho and the beneficial use appropriation of the natural flow of the Snake River for other acres within the irrigation district. All lands irrigated with water from A & B Irrigation District from a surface water source are within the irrigation district, and are within a farm unit or units that have been included as lands of the irrigation district.
