To Whom It May Concern:

I am 62 (sixty two) years old and have been raised on, and farmed, the property adjoining the property previously owned by Merlin and Donnetta Nelson and then sold to Jeff Stiglett.

Through neighboring and working relationships with Nelsons, I have personal knowledge there have never been any fees paid, or a filing in the 1980's, that was required by the State of Idaho, for establishing of the water rights in question.

In the early 1990's, Ron Inskip, Jr. rented this ground from Nelson's and raised one crop of barley that was irrigated by water brought through a neighbors pasture. This type of water usage has been the only means of providing water to this property.

In summary, since this water right was not used, established or filed on in the 1980's, and no fees have been paid, I OBJECT to this water right being granted.
