To Whom It May Concern:

In February, of 1970 I married Thomas H. Hubbard, Jr. and we frequently visited his uncles; Joseph and Chester Hubbard, at their ranch in New Meadows, Idaho. We traveled with them though their ranch lands, helping them irrigate and work their ranch, hunting, and otherwise, for many years. I, Doris H. Hubbard, testify that I saw Joseph and Chester Hubbard irrigate their ranch from 1970 until Chester was physically unable to continue, shortly before his death in 1993. When Joseph was unable to do much on the ranch - he still did the irrigating. When he could no longer do it, Chester began to irrigate, which he did right up to a short time before his death.

I, Doris Helen Hubbard do hereby testify to the fact that Chester

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Thomas Harry Hubbard, Jr. am a nephew of Chester and Joseph Hubbard. All Of my life , except the 2 years in the Army, I visited my uncle's ranch, in New Meadows Idaho, frequently.

I can testify to the fact that Joseph and Chester Hubbard used irrigation water they took from a dam in Mudd Creek, at their ranch in New Meadows, Idaho. Joseph did the irrigating as long as he was able to do so, then Chester began to irrigate, which he did till right before his death in 1993.

I, Thomas H Hubbard, do hereby testify to the fact that

Thomas H. Hubbard

Joseph and Chester Hubbard of New Meadows, Idaho used waters taken from a dam built in Mudd Creek, on their ranch, to irrigate their ranch.
