Agent: S. Hemenway
Claimant: Nunhems USA, Inc
WR# 63-32892
Mailing Address: 1200 Anderson Corner Rd. Parma, ID 83660
Phone #: (208) 674-4000
Location of POD: northwest of the house, there's a pump house System: 8" casing, submersible pump (unknown Hp), unknown depth, 1 1/2 " discharge, to unknown size buried line to rainbirds (6 zones) to water yard and garden pictures were submitted with claim showing property, and surrounding yard, etc

Measuring Device: N/A (Not required with small domestic) Field Exam: Not required on small domestic Nonirrigation Uses: NONE
Other Uses: NONE
Other WRs Used: NONE
Supplemental Water: NONE

Basis of Claim: ArcView shows Farmers Cooperative Ditch Co. overlaps property for irrigation claims. When I asked Shane if there was any supplemental water, he said couldn't use Farmers Cooperative Ditch Co. for this piece of property since there is no physical way to get the water to the property, and besides the property is up-gradient from the ditch.
