

IN THE MATTER OF:

Rainbow Farms ditch
State of Idaho
County of Lemhi

AFFIDAVIT

Edward H. Corbett

being first duly sworn,

deposes and says:

In 1934 the Rainbow Farms Association purchased the old Governor Shoup Ranch from the Shoup Estate. That fall work was started to reconstruct the old river ditch. Part of which had not had water through it for several years. The work done that fall was by Miles & Boudette Schneider and J. T. Corbett & Son. The work continued into the early winter months.

The following year work was resumed, in addition to those who worked the year before were the Hodges Bros., Jack Harkness Clair & Ariel Johnson. The construction was not fully completed till 1937. However some water was used through the ditch in 1936. Since that time the ditch has been improved and made larger in some places. Some of the weaker sections were improved, making it possible to carry enough water to fully irrigate all the acreage under the ditch.
