RE: NOTICE OF CLAIM A31-10656

Dear Reed and Levaun:

Records for the Department of Water Resources (IDWR) contain the enclosed information for a Notice of Claim, A31-10656, in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). IDWR records also reveal the filing fee for this Notice has not been paid.

Currently, the filing of Notices for domestic and/or stockwater rights from a groundwater source can be deferred. Such Notices will not be barred from being filed in the future, although there will likely be additional costs associated with future filings. Filing a Notice will result in a court decreed water right. Therefore, in the Department's best judgment, it would be prudent for you to file now.

To complete the filing process for this Notice, verify information on the enclosed Notice is accurate, sign the form in the presence of a Notary Public, and return the notarized form to this office along with a check for $75.00 ($25.00 to file and $50.00 late fee).

If this office does not receive the notarized form and filing fee by September 12, 1994, we will purge the information from the department's records.

Feel free to contact this office to discuss questions you have concerning the above request.

Respectfully submitted,

Ernest Carlsen
Adjudication Supervisor
