Sorry about that. Next time I'll read the subject line a little better. I just read the body and thought you had asked for information about those rights to be sent to you. I didn't realize that it was a change of address for ownership of the rights.

I will forward your information on to our Western Region Office that oversees water rights in Basin 63. I apologize for any offence - none was intended.

Mr. Larsen,
The only person mentioned in my cover letter is Karl Dreher. Since he is the director, I don't think he is the person who has been working with me.

I don't remember, however, I may be able to check my records at home. Anyway, I did not think that was pertinent information, as I thought my name and address were in a database. If that info is in a database, it could be changed without requiring me to remember the staff member assigned to these claims.

- And if the person's name is required and that important, why wasn't on the printout of my claims, or in a cover letter?
