MEMORANDUM

TO: ADJUDICATION CLAIM FILE 63-4544

FROM: DANIEL A. NELSON

DATE: 5/25/06

SUBJECT: CLAIM REVIEW

This claim is based on a statutory claim. The statutory claim was for 30 acres and 0.70 cfs. The current owner only claimed 26 acres and 0.57 cfs on the adjudication claim. When creating the map for this claim with the 1987 aerial photo, I agree with the adjudication claim that 26 acres were irrigated under this water right. The file contains letters from a Louise McEwea Young and Charles E. Dean that suggest that the farm was irrigated at the beginning of the irrigation season in 1943. The statutory claim and the adjudication claim both list a March 15, 1943 date, which seems reasonable. Therefore, the priority date will be recommended as claimed. The season of use will be recommended per department standards.

There is an issue with the irrigation diversion rate claimed on this water right. The irrigation diversion rate claimed is 0.57 cfs instead of 0.52 cfs, which is the standard of 0.02 cfs or one minor inch per acre multiplied by 26 acres. The claim also requests 0.05 cfs for stockwater. The total diversion rate is 0.57 cfs. It appears as though a mistake was made on the irrigation diversion rate portion of this claim when it was being prepared. I am recommending that the diversion rate be 0.52 cfs for irrigation and 0.05 cfs for stockwater for a total of 0.57 cfs.

A field examiner measured the rate of diversion. The field examiner claimed a rate of diversion of 1.378 cfs using $2\frac{1}{4}$ deep measurement on a 5-foot wide weir. The field examiner showed the rate of diversion as 1.378 cfs on table chart. I could not find a chart that had a 1.378 cfs diversion rate. In reviewing the pictures, I am assuming that the $2\frac{1}{4}$ meant .225 ft of head on a 5 ft broad crested weir. Using this assumption to calculate the rate of flow on a broad crested weir, the flow rate would be between 1.49 cfs and 1.84 cfs. Regardless of the measurement, the flow being diverted was well over the 0.57 cfs that can be recommended for this claim, so capacity of the system does not seem to be an issue.

Tesnohldek

The field examiner also GPSed the point of diversion and marked out the lands irrigated on a 1987 aerial photo. On the aerial photo, the claimant wanted additional lands in the NENW to be included. Those lands cannot be included unless the claimant files an amendment to the claim with acceptable proof that they were irrigated in 1943, or by filing a new claim with a priority date of when they were first irrigated. The field examiner found 200 head of cattle, which seems reasonable. The claimant did not pay any additional funds for the stockwater portion, so the use will need to be limited to 13,000 gallons per day.

2. dnelson 10/19/2006 Claim Correction

Comment: On 10/19/2006 I recieved a call from the claimant. I had mistakenly placed a volume on a surface water right. I removed the volume per department standards.

Re: Claim to a Water Right No. 63-4544
(Kenneth L. Lisle)

Robert M. Henggeler
Whitley Drive
Fruitland, Idaho 83619

Dear Mr. Henggeler:

Pursuant to your letter of August 19, 1977, please be advised that your reference to water right 65-2416A must be incorrect since that does not pertain to Hurd Gulch. Water right license 20516/65-2496 was, however, issued to Clyde Hurd. The license was for the diversion of 1.74 cfs from Hurd Gulch and bears a priority of June 28, 1948. The license is appurtenant to 87 acres in Sec. 20, Twp. 7N, Rge. 5W.

With regard to claim to a water right #63-4544 in the name of Kenneth L. Lisle, please be advised that no permit is ever issued pursuant to a claim. There is no mechanism in the statutes to determine the validity of a claim. A claim which is submitted together with any protests and evidence filed against the claim are received and filed in the Department's records. No hearings are held by the Department on protested claims as would be the case on a protested application.

Your letter and the enclosures you sent will be filed in claim file 63-4544.

A petition to the Director of the Department of Water Resources for the adjudication of water rights on a stream system must be signed by five or more or a majority of the waterusers on a stream system. So your letter will not be considered as a request to adjudicate the waters of Hurd Gulch.

If this office may be of further assistance, please contact us.

Sincerely,

L. GLEN SAXTON, P.E.

Re. Notice of Claim to Water Right # 63 4544

Dear Mr. Allred;

Before any permit is issued with a priority date of 1943, I would appreciate it if you would confirm that Water Right # 65-2416 A has the prior right in Hurd Gulch. The two enclosures will help substantiate this. If necessary, I will send two more depositions from eye witnesses of the development of Hurd Gulch.

In conversation with Mr. Lyle, we would like to petition the Director to adjudicate the rights of Hurd Gulch.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Henggeler

Mr Clyde Hurd
RFD # 1
Payette, Idaho

Dear Mr. Hurd:

In answer to your request for statement of the conditions of your irrigation system at the time of the construction of the wasteway through your farm by Government forces, and provisions made so that you would not be deprived of water due to that construction, I submit the following:

1. In 1939 Government forces straightened and excavated where necessary, a channel which had been caused by flash storms and spring run-off, to provide an emergency outlet to Snake River for water from the "A" Canal of the Payette Division. This wasteway headed at a check and turnout structure in mile 18 of the above canal approximately 4 miles east of where it enters Snake River at your farm.

2. In approaching your farm it was necessary to excavate to a depth of from 5 to 6 feet to go under your outlet road, and to more closely reach the average level of Snake River so that costly drop structures would not be necessary. In doing so your irrigation system which headed at some springs rising on and directly above your farm was destroyed. To offset this, and to provide for the continued irrigation of your farm, bolts were set in the inlet transition to the road crossing for check stones, and walls were constructed with adequate length to provide sufficient overflow area to accommodate any waste which may be necessary from the canal, after you had checked the inlet to sufficient height to raise the water so it would again flow in your ditch system. Further recognition and consideration was given to your irrigation system in the construction of two or three flumes across the wasteway channel between the road crossing and the river.

3. Since this construction took place most of the lands between your farm and the "A" Canal have been brought under irrigation, and the channel carries considerable return flow during the irrigation season. It is very doubtful that the Bureau of Reclamation or any land owner whose farm this channel crosses would ever divert and put to beneficial use enough of this water to diminish the supply so that you would not have sufficient enteririgate your farm. Because of the possibility of its use as an emergency wasteway, operating forces would not permit diversion dikes or structures farther upstream in the channel, and the amount of water which could be taken out without such structures would be very small.

Hoping this covers the information you desired, and assuring you we shall be glad to give you any further information we may have in helping you to clarify your water right, I am

Very truly yours,

I Ed Meroney, age 78, worked for Payette County road Department from 1940 to 1944. I was appointed road overseer Jan 27, 1941. During the four years I worked for the county road Department we built the county roads in Black Canyon area between the city of Fruitland and Parma.

Through the building of the roads is how I first worked in Hurd Gulch. Two of the county roads built crossed Hurd Gulch.

Curley Manser (District road Manager) and I cleaned Hurd Gulch every year from 1940 to 1944. We cleaned from the main Black Canyon ditch to Clyde Hurds' diversion to prevent the road culverts from plugging up with silt, weeds and other trash. The process used to clean the gulch was pulling a patrol with a caterpillar. At that time there were not any ponds, check boxes or dams except for Clyde Hurds' water diversion.

When asked the question how much water was running in the gulch and where the water was coming from I remember that we had to put in a 10 in. tin whistle to carry the spring water. The spring would just about fill the 10 in. pipe to full capacity. The springs were running between highway 95 and Hurds' diversion dam. The first two years I worked for Payette County the only water in the draw was spring water because Black Canyon irrigation didn't start irrigating until 1941. The water started in 1940 but it was too late to irrigate.

Grant Hurd was the first ditch rider for Black Canyon ditch in this area.

I took my farm on Black Canyon project out of sagebrush in 1940 and started irrigating that year. The waste water from a small portion of it went into the drain which went thru the farm now owned by Duane Tesnakadek.

There weren't many farms that year but in the next two or three years, as I remember, most of the land which drained into that waste ditch was being farmed. Mr. E. L. McEwen came about this time and it must have been about 1943 when he started diverting water from this drain to irrigate the field south of the ditch. The water ~~was~~ diverted this way as long as I owned my farm and had knowledge of it. I sold my farm in 1969 so can say the water was used ~~continually~~ each year until then.

To whom it may Concern,

When Mr. E. L. McEwen came to the farm referred to in 1943 he put an old car body in the waste ditch in order to get water onto his south field. He continued to make use of this for a year or two, I cant recall how long. Then he put in a concrete check to better serve the purpose. This was in continuous use until 1969 when I sold my place and no longer had any knowledge of the matter.
