RE: YOUR INQUIRY FROM BIG SPRING CREEK RE: A33-02133

Dear George:

I have further investigated your inquiry regarding the diversion from Big Spring Creek at the Knollin (Knowlen) Ranch, now under the holdings of Sage Willow Inc.

I am enclosing several documents which I hope will answer your question. Included in these documents is a hand-written letter from L.R. Hawley which references the Upper Spring Creek (also referred to as Spring Creek and Big Spring Creek in other documents) diversion during the winter months. You should note the water right was licensed for the diversions from Upper Spring Creek and Little Lost River.

Please peruse these documents. If you should have additional questions please contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

Allen B. Ruberry
