Additional Notes:

Scott Earl is shown as the current owner (tax lot information) but there is no listing in phone directory by entering in the name, or by entering in the address. On the tax lot information, Scott Earl has the same address as the claimant.

Changed Season of Use to match IDWR Administrative scheduled season of use for that area, and to also match other splits. The Decree does not have a defined season of use.

Changed the Tributary from Snake River to Billingsley Creek, which was confirmed by ArcMap, so it matches the other splits. (the Snake River is the tributary for Billingsley Creek)
