Re: Subcase Nos. 63-3330B, 63-7075B, 63-31189

Dear Sandy,

A Status Conference was held for the above-captioned Subcases on August 5, 2008. During the hearing, SPF agreed to file amended claims in two of the Subcases (63-3330B and 63-7075B) and provide a written proposal for settlement. This letter is an attempt to fulfill that agreement.

I have enclosed copies of amended claims for water rights 63-3330B and 63-7075B. These claims were mailed to the SRBA court on September 12, 2008. I have also enclosed three draft water right descriptions that show proposed changes in overscore/understrike format.

The original claims were filed by Mr. Daniel's predecessor and did not accurately describe how the water was being used at the time. Mr. Daniel later became concerned about the possibility of forfeiture because the land was not being irrigated at the time of purchase. For this reason, he purchased and transferred water right 63-31189 to assure irrigation for a small vineyard. The error on the original claims became apparent when the three water rights were recommended as overlapping in the SRBA.

In fact, water rights 63-3330B and 63-7075B had been used to irrigate the entire area shown on the map accompanying the amended claims, including the five acres now irrigated under water right 63-31189. The Daniels do not wish to file an enlargement claim to represent that use. Instead, they propose leaving water right 63-31189 exactly where it is and correcting the original claims for water rights 63-3330B and 63-7075B to show a total of 40 acres of irrigation within a 48 acre permissible place of use.

I hope this explanation is helpful. Please call me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Roxanne Brown
