No objections were filed to the Director's Report for the above-captioned water right claim. However, in the Court's review of the uncontested water rights in Basin 67, the court inquired of IDWR as to whether the place of use for the domestic component of the right was accurately described. IDWR responded that the recommendation for the right in the Director's Report should be corrected to more precisely define the domestic place of use.

In accordance with the foregoing, the following are hereby ordered:
