Dear Terry:

As a part of cleaning up the details of the sale on the property that we purchased from you, we need to file a water claim with water resources on the well located on the south end of the property. It is our understanding that your Grandfather or father drilled the well in 1959. Since that time, up to the present, it was used both for domestic water and stockwater. As you have lived on and farmed this property in recent years, you have the best knowledge of the history of this well. If this is correct, would you sign this letter as a notarized affidavit stating this to be true as to the best of your knowledge.
