To Whom it May Concern:

In 1977 I, Carol L. Ziegler and my husband Donald L. Ziegler, bought property adjacent to the property now owned by Dick and Alice Graf. At that time the property they now own was owned by Chester Webb and occupied by his Daughter Evelyn Webb Karraker and her husband Ken Karraker. There was an octagonal building on the property in which they lived. I'm sure it was not built with any kind of permit nor was it up to any kind of code, but it was occupied, and water was being supplied from the well put in by Chester Webb in 1976.

Evelyn and Ken divorced and Evelyn lived in the house for probably two more years. She then remarried and moved with her husband to Carewood. Although she was not physically present at the Rathdrum address, she always had renters living in the house. She then left Larry and moved back here. At that point she had a mobile home moved in which butted up against the octagon house.

When Evelyn decided to move to the Washington coast near Vancouver, her father decided to sell the property. Dick and Alice Graf bought the property and replaced the existing mobile home and octagon structure with the home and shop that are now there.

Basically between 1977 and 1992 the home was unoccupied for only short periods of time.

I hope this will be of help.

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Carol L. Ziegler". The ink is dark and the signature is fluid, with the first and last names being more prominent than the middle initial.
