Dear Claimant:

Please find enclosed a page of photographs showing the water system and home for which Dwight Dirkmaat obtained water right permit and license no. 95-9132. If you are the current owner of this property, you may amend adjudication claim no. 95-11039 that you filed online to make the basis of the claim water right no. 95-9132.

I attempted to send this information to Craig via email, but the message was initially delayed, and now I have been notified that it was not delivered. That is why you are receiving this letter.

I have also enclosed a draft amended claim form that you may sign and return if indeed water right no. 95-9132 is the water use you intended to claim on CSRBA claim no. 95-11039. You may return the signed amended claim to the address shown below:
