Priority date description: Preparatory to building a house on the property identified herein I had a well dug and completed on or about the Claimed Priority Date shown above. Construction on the house itself began in July 2007 and was completed on about November 1, 2008, at which time Kootenai County issued a Certificate of Occupancy. My wife and I now live in the new house and use the water from the well regularly as we and the construction crews also did throughout the construction period. We also use water from the well during warmer months for operation of a sprinkling system for the new house lawns and shrub beds.

Description of use: Water Use

DOMESTIC

Description

Use is confined to typical domestic purposes as well as to the operation of a sprinkling system for the lawn and shrub beds on the property.
