RE: Amended Notice of Claim to a Water Right
Water Right 95-9504 (Claim ID 3973)

Sir/Madam:

I just completed the online application of the Notice to a Water Right and paid the $51.00 fee along with the application. Attached is an amended application. Pursuant to the instructions on your website, I've printed out the online application that was submitted, made the changes, and signed the application.

The reason for this amendment is that I did not realize that irrigation water for lots up to ½ an acre are included in the "Domestic" use, i.e. as set forth in the instructions: "Domestic use, 0.04 cfs for one household with up to 1/2 acre of lawn or garden irrigation." Therefore, I've amended the application to exclude the "Irrigation" use.

Also, I don't know if it's necessary, but I only included the legal description in the "Place of Use." I should have indicated the place of use on the interactive map. So, I've attached a copy of the plat map that indicates our property is Lot 13 of the Driftwood Point subdivision.

There was no mention of an additional fee for filing an amended Notice of Claim. However, since my original application erroneously included "Irrigation," I ended up paying a $51.00 fee, instead of the $25.00 fee. I am NOT looking for a refund, just please apply the excess fee that I've paid to the amendment fee, if any.

If you have any questions, please call me at the number listed above.

Thank You,

Mark A. Velarde
