DONOVAN HECKMAN, being first duly sworn upon his oath, deposes and says:

That he is the majority stockholder and an officer in Heckman Ranches, Inc. which is the claimant of water claim identification A79-10413. That the date of priority is December of 1961. That actually the claimant purchased said property from the Continental Casualty Company. To the best of the information and knowledge of your affiant, Continental Casualty Company became the owner of the property sometime during the first part of the 1950's and they utilized the water from the Salmon River and established a portable pump and pipe sprinklers which when the property was sold also were sold with the water rights that were owned by the Grantor, the Continental Casualty Company, and since that date of approximately 1961, the Heckman Ranches, Inc. has been utilizing water from the Salmon River for irrigation purposes by means of a portable pump and pipe sprinklers. That the use has been continuous during that entire period of time. The water has been used on the five acres that are claimed to keep the property green, the grass irrigated, and to keep the dust down and also we have grazed livestock upon the same. Said use has been continuous in effect since the year 1961 by Heckman Ranches, Inc. and was used for approximately ten years, at least, prior to that date by Continental Casualty Company, and affiant knows these facts from his own personal observation.
