11. Do you own the property listed above as place of use? Yes

12. Other Water Rights Used:

13. Remarks:

Priority date description: Weber Farms purchased the property in 1969 and water cattle from the St. Maries River at that time. Cattle had previously been water on this property for years prior to that date but we are unsure of when that started but it was at least several decades before then. It has been used for cattle watering when this area was settled by the early pioneers.
